Risk Information for Renters of Yurt

As the renter of the yurt, I, _____ understand that I have certain responsibilities:

Date of Rental _____ # in Party _____

- I agree to inform the group using the yurt of the dangers and risks of winter travel and yurt use.
- I understand that traveling to the yurt may be dangerous, due to weather and snow conditions. The risks of yurt travel may include, but are not limited to: being caught and disoriented in whiteouts or snowstorms, becoming lost and not finding the yurt, falling and colliding with trees, rocks or other objects while skiing or snow shoeing, becoming exhausted while traveling, finding the yurt damaged, being caught in an avalanche, and developing frost bite or hypothermia.
- To minimize the risks, I agree to encourage all members of the party to prepare carefully for the yurt trip. I understand the importance of having some of the members of the yurt party well acquainted with the location of the yurt prior to our trip. Even then, I realize that it is possible that the party may not find the yurt, and I will ask everyone to be prepared, if necessary, to spend the night out. I also understand that it is the responsibility of the yurt user to locate the yurt. Yurt rental fees will not be refunded if the yurt is not located.
- I understand that use of the yurt may be dangerous. Risks associated with yurt use may include, but are not limited to: injuries from use of the bunk beds, propane stove and lanterns, splitting mal, axe or other equipment in the yurt.
- I understand that the yurt or its contents could be damaged, and I understand that it may be necessary to collect additional fire wood for the wood stove.
- I understand that if our group burns wood outside the yurt, I will be charged for another night rental.

I have read the above information. I understand and acknowledge the risks and have made a careful decision that I am willing to accept the renting the yurt.

I will inform my group of dangers and assume all risks
